COSTLY IMPROVEMENTS AT DUNCAN THEATER

Manager J. Scott Duncan, of the Duncan opera house, is having many extensive improvements made to the interior of the house this summer. The place has been thoroughly renovated, but the principal work being carried out is the remodeling of scenery and a general overhauling of the stage equipment.
The work is being done by C. R. Black, of Cincinnati, Ohio, an expert scenic artist, who comes to Mr. Duncan unusually well recommended. Black has done scenic work in the largest and most popular theatres in the United States, and is also the originator of the "Hell's Gate," built recently at Fort Worth, Texas, at a cost of $13,500.

The approaching theatre season will probably open on September 11th with the Boston Opera company. Other attractions that have been booked are "Texas," "Fifty Miles from Boston," "Girl Question," "Sunny Side of Broadway," "Three Twins," "Just Out of College," "Strongheart," "Lion and the Mouse," "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway," "Human Hearts," "In Wyoming," "Commencement Days," "Married in Haste," "Stubborn Cinderella," and many others of equal merit and standing in the theatre world.

Manager Duncan has changed from the Pelton & Smutser booking circuit to that of Peter McCourt. Mr. McCourt is an old theatrical man of many years' experience and the attractions that he sends out on his circuits are always high class and of the best.

A special endeavor is being made on the part of the management to make the coming season the best and most entertaining in the history of the Duncan opera house, and from present indications it will be.
